

Please attach a sample of your fabric in the space provided, mark top and face side of the fabric. Provide specific instructions for fabric application to your COM order. Unless cutting instructions are clearly stated on the order, Paladin reserves the right to use the best judgment in determining if a COM fabric is to be cut the way it is woven (railroad or up the bolt), the face side of the fabric and to determine top and bottom of the design. Please copy this form and submit for each piece of your COM. Return of excess yardage must be noted on orders.

It is the responsibility of the customer to expedite the fabric. A copy of your COM Information form must accompany all COM orders. If material is being sent from a source other than the purchaser, that source should insure that the information requested on this form is provided. Proper identification of COM is imperative. If we are unable to identify a COM, the order cannot be processed. If order requires several COM's, the order will not be scheduled for production until all COM has arrived at our factory. COM should be tagged with your company name and purchase order number.

COM fabric must be inspected by the customer or supplier. Paladin Industries, Inc. accepts no responsibility for defects, color or dye lot variations or other fabric flaws, flammability, durability or colorfastness and will not allow any adjustment for COM. Paladin Industries, Inc. does not warrant COM fabrics. Should we consider your COM defective or unusable, it will be returned freight collect.
